The Norwalk High School Marching Band proudly presents their 2009 show

Once and Future King

ARRIVAL
BATTLE
COMRADES IN ARMS
TRIUMPH & CELEBRATION

Ruthless King Liam and his Dark Knights have overcome peaceful Emerald Kingdom. He is crowned King of the newly acquired land. Dissension over his crowning is rampant. Skirmishes and battles frequently occur.

The Emerald Kingdom attempts to overthrow the Dark Knights. They are defeated repeatedly. At long last they take a rest to rejuvenate and plan the recapture of their land. During their rest, they enjoy memories of the times before ruthless King Liam and the Dark Knights.

Our battle returns, and how will it end? All Hail King Liam .... or maybe not

The Norwalk High School Marching Band is led onto the field by Drum Major Liam Hanna and Assistant Drum Majors Brenna Beluk and Robyn Mola. Drum Captain is Tyler DiMarco. Guard Captains are Sasha Caldwell, Kristen Chuba, and Devin Powers. There are 136 students in total: 103 musicians and 33 color guard.

Music for this year's show is from "Georgian Court Fanfare" by Richard Saucedo with permission to arrange by Hal Leonard Publishing, "In The Spring, at the time when Kings Go Off To War" by David Holsinger with permission to arrange by Southern Music Publications, and "A Hymnsong on Philip Bliss" by David Holsinger with permission to arrange by TRN.

Music arrangers are Kevin Lowery, Jack Mansager, and Jeff Smith with percussion assistance from Alan Amendola and Stephen Conoscenti.

Visual design is by Jeff Smith. Guard designs are by Kirk Myers, Syreeta Jackson, Julie Ritch, Claire Iannaccone, and Jackie Coladonato.

Staff for this year's field show include:

Brass: Kevin Lowery Woodwind: Joe Cutrone
Percussion: Alan Amendola, Mike Blancaflor, Stephen Conoscenti, Mike Fry, Jack Mansager, Bernie Malesky, Geoffrey Watkins
Guard: Jackie Coladonato, Claire Iannaccone, Syreeta Jackson, Kirk Myers, Julie Ritch
Marching: Vinny Cautadela, Doug Oravez, Phil Vizzo
Staff Coordinator: Doug Oravez
Set Construction and Design: Rich Powers Set Painting: Ralph DiMarco, Kevin Hanna
Shields and Swords: Lee Heidemann